

I oppose the removal of the Morse Code test from the requirements for any HF-privileged class amateur radio license. The current 5 wpm test serves useful purposes and is not an undue burden on prospective amateurs.